FEATURED WINE

Venica & Venica

2021 "Ronco delle Cime" Friulano

Collio DOC | Friuli-Venezia-Giulia | Italy

The Venica Family has grown grape vines in The Collio for four generations - keeping in mind that the region has only been a part of Italy since WWI. The Collio is considered one of the most evocative territories in Italy, full of history and culture. It is the borderland between Italy and Slovenia and extends on both sides of the border.

Ronco delle Cime is the highest-elevation vineyard on Venica's estate, with very steep hills surrounded by forests. "Ronco delle Cime Friulano" is one of the two Cru wines of the Venia & Venica winery.

DNA studies of Friulano have established its origins beyond the Alps, specifically as a relative of Sauvignonasse, or Sauvignon Vert. After its arrival from France, the grape variety subsequently evolved, adapting to the soil and climate. It's the Friulian people who have given it its current identity, transforming it into a symbol of the territory and local culture.

A bright golden yellow color, it has aromas of William pear, yellow peach, herbs & flowers. On the palate, it has substantial structure with pleasant saltiness and freshness. A full-bodied and enveloping wine with fruity and intense undertones; it concludes with the typical almond aftertaste of Friulano.

Pairs well with shrimp, aged prosciutto, cow's milk and goat cheese, truffle, tomato, swordfish, and porcini mushroom risotto. It is also a rare wine that pairs wonderfully with eggs. It is fabulous with Carbonara.

Gaetano's is delighted to be able to offer this special Cru by-the-glass for the month of April.
